

UN CLIMATE CHANGE CONFERENCE (COP27) 6-18 NOVEMBER 2022, EGYPT

OCEAN PAVILION SIDE EVENT

“Ocean observations for climate change:
How do we train and educate the next generation of scientists and citizens?”

Thursday 17th November 2022,

15:00 - 16:30 EET

We will focus on the crucial elements that are capacity development and ocean literacy, key to implementing a truly global ocean observing system. We will provide examples of successful initiatives and showcase efforts to increase societal awareness of climate change and its intrinsic link to the ocean. Panelists will discuss the challenges of training the next generation of ocean observers, of bringing ocean observations to the classroom and of highlighting their importance to policy makers.

SPEAKERS:

Lilian Krug (Brazil), Adam Gristwood (UK), Ximena Aguilar Vega (Mexico), Allison Cusick (USA), Moumini Savadogo (Burkina Faso)
